

Southern Illinois Regional Superintendents Honor Holt

Marilyn Holt, Interim CEO for Illinois Eastern Community Colleges, was recently honored by the Illinois Association of Regional Superintendents of Schools (IARSS) for her years of dedication and service to the students of southern Illinois. Throughout her career, Holt has been first and foremost an advocate for kids. Among her many contributions to public education, she served as the Director of the Educational Service Center #17, Superintendent of Richland County CUSD #1, Interim Superintendent of Jasper County CUSD #1, Interim Superintendent of Mt. Vernon Township High School, in addition to the time she spent in service at the Illinois State Board of Education. Additionally, she currently serves on the Regional Board of School Trustees for Clay, Crawford, Jasper, Lawrence, and Richland Counties.

She is pictured below with (L) Regional Superintendent of Schools Monte Newlin and (R) Assistant Regional Superintendent of Schools Corrie Ray.
