Integrating SEL Tools with Trauma-Informed Practices and the CASEL Framework

9am to 12pm

ROE#12
PD Center
300 W. Main
Robinson

Presented by Janna Surrells, ROE#12 SEL Coach and Roselene Quick, School Services Director

Join us for a comprehensive workshop designed to enhance your understanding and application of Social and Emotional Learning (SEL) in educational settings. This interactive session will provide you with practical tools and strategies, introduce key concepts related to trauma, and offer a detailed overview of the CASEL framework.

Workshop Highlights:

- Understanding SEL Tools: Explore various SEL tools and resources that support emotional intelligence, resilience, and social skills. Learn how these tools can be effectively integrated into classroom activities and daily interactions
- Understanding Trauma: Gain insights into what constitutes trauma, including different types and sources. Understand the impact of trauma on individuals, particularly in educational settings. Discover strategies for creating a supportive environment that addresses the needs of individuals affected by trauma
- Understanding CASEL: Delve into the CASEL framework, which outlines the five core competencies of SEL: Self-Awareness, Self-Management, Social Awareness, Relationship Skills, and Responsible Decision-Making

FREE!

SEL Tool Giveaway: As a special bonus, we're excited to offer a giveaway of SEL tools designed to support and enhance your teaching practices. Attendees will have the chance to receive practical resources that can be immediately applied in the classroom or counseling settings.
